

Dr. Revati Balu

She holds a Ph.D degree in Education. She was a faculty member at Tata Institute of Social Sciences Mumbai. Her major responsibilities included teaching, training and research in the areas of Childs' rights

And Youth welfare and development. She had National and international experience in participating In Conferences and Seminars , presenting Papers and facilitating group processes.

Currently she is engaged in Training, Research and Consultation in the areas of School, college and University Education at Government, non- Government and community levels. Major areas of her Work include Teacher Education, Social work education and Human growth and behaviour

As a Senior trainer Coach of Lions Quest In India Foundation, she has conducted many workshops in Lions Quest Programmes, Trained trainers and senior trainers in India, Africa and Southeast Asia

As a music lover she continues to learn Music and enjoys attending Concerts. Her other interests Include Swimming and participating in activities related to Neighborhood improvement