

Prerna Agarwal

Professional Roles

Certified Trainer for the International Program of Life Skills, Lions Quest Skills for Adolescence & Skills for Growth. Has been volunteering for the Quest program since 2006 and has done a lot of work in her role as a Chairperson for 6 years, until she was certified as a trainer in 2018. Conducted several programs for teachers, parents and children on Lions Quest Social Emotional Learning ever since, in northern & eastern India.

Certified EQ Educator, certified by 6Seconds, a global organization for building emotional intelligence. Been a visiting Faculty for BBA students at Royal Global University, Guwahati, Assam for 5 years(2008-2012). Conducts trainings for various social & professional organisations, including EIRC, EICASA, IIE, RGU, ICS among others.

Certified Storyteller from the International Academy of Storytelling. Trains teachers on using storytelling as a tool for education and has been organizing story workshops for children since last 12 years. Organizes workshops for reading, creative writing, public speaking and storytelling for children. Aims is to inspire and motivate children to read more and spend less time on screen. Presently pursuing a study on Children's Literature.

Empanelled as a Trainer with Rajiv Gandhi National Institute for Youth Development and conducts training programs and workshops on Life Skills and Soft Skills for them.

Social Work

Writes regularly for the education section of Times of India, North East. Writes articles on varied topics for other social magazines.

Active member of Ficci Ladies Organisation and part of various community development projects.

Member of Indian Institute for Training & Development, Guwahati Chapter.

Active Lion Member since 16 years. Assumed several roles in the district, Global Leadership Team Chairperson of District 322G being the most prominent. Her father-in-law, Sri L.N Agarwalla is a Past District Governor, 322D.

Anchored several prestigious corporate and community with eminent personalities as Chief Guest such as Sri Subramanian Swamy (MP, Rajya Sabha), Pandit Birju Maharaj (Kathak Maestro), Sri Sarbananda Sonowal (CM, Assam), Sri Jagdish Mukhi & Sri Banwarilal Purohit, (Hon Governors of Assam). She's been the Master of Ceremonies for several Lions District Conferences.

Awards & Recognitions from LCI

Lions Quest Champion Award (2020)

Leadership Medal (2020)

Best District Chairperson – Lions Quest (2008)

Outstanding Zone Chairperson of Multiple 322 (2007)

Best President, President Excellence Award (2006)

Best Public Speaker (Multiple Convention of Kolkata & Patna)

Appreciation Award – Lions Quest (2010)

International President's Appreciation Certificate (7 nos)

Skills & Hobbies

Graduate in vocal, Hindustani Classical Music (Bhatkhande Gharana, Lucknow). Has performed earlier for All India Radio & local TV channel. Has performed in innumerable social and family events.

Loves to read, write, sing and travel.

Blessed with a loving family - dedicated mother to 15-year daughter, Sanchi. Husband, Amit Agarwal is a professional designer and runs a construction firm. With a zest to make a difference, Perna perfectly balances life between work and home.